

12th July 2023

Dear Supporter,

I am writing to offer you the opportunity to subscribe to the Oxford United programme for the 2023/24 season, starting with the game against Carlisle United on 12th August.

Unfortunately, we are still unable to offer subscriptions for away programmes as we cannot guarantee that other teams will be producing printed programmes or what prices they will be charging. Also, please note that this year's subscription does NOT cover cup games, but pre-season friendlies ARE included for those who subscribe on or before Thursday 20^{th} July.

The price remains £4 per programme for non-subscribers. Subscribers, however, receive a discount and will pay under £3.50 per programme.

This means that a season's subscription costs £80 (or £128.75 with first-class postage for those who take out a postal subscription).

All subscribers will continue to receive a free subscription to our online digital programme at www.matchdayfix.com/oufc. Details will be provided by email on request.

To subscribe, please complete the form overleaf and return it to: Programme Subscriptions, Oxford United FC, Grenoble Road, Oxford, OX4 4XP. If paying by bank transfer, please email me on programme@oufc.co.uk to let me know when the money has been transferred and I will confirm it with our accounts department.

Please pay by bank transfer if possible, although we also accept cheque or card payments.

PLEASE RESPOND BY TUESDAY 8th AUGUST TO GUARANTEE YOUR CARLISLE ISSUE.

Best wishes

Martin Brodetsky Programme editor
